

2024 Consignment Cookies for Booths Program

The Consignment Cookie Program is a way for troops to get cookies for cookie booths or events, but it is a safeguard to where you can also return cookies back to the cookie cupboard.

This is available Feb. 27- Mar. 12 at Fort Wayne Cookie Central, Camp Soni Cookie Central, and select volunteer-led cookie cupboards.

To order cookies on consignment, you will place a planned order at the cupboard. In the Notes section of your planned order, please type in that the order is for consignment. You must also indicate what cookie booth/event you plan on using these cookies for. (See image below)

Any cookies that you have ordered on consignment can be returned to the cookie cupboard of where you obtained them no later than the Tuesday following your pickup. Your planned order will be approved and the cookies will be transferred to the troop as usual. However, there will be another transfer issued when cookies are returned to the cupboard to remove the returned cookies from your inventory.

Only cookies listed on your consignment order are allowed to be returned to the cookie cupboard. You may not return any cookies that were ordered previously.
