

Camp time is right around the corner! In Girl Scouting, outdoor experiences provide opportunities for girls to discover, connect and take action out of doors in ways that build courage, confidence and character. What will your daughter be doing next summer? Hopefully, one of these exciting opportunities will entice her to save time on her busy schedule to participate. Save these dates now and watch for more details in the camp brochure available in 2018! Remember, camp makes a great gift!
