
Cookie Family Meeting Checklist

- A background image featuring a variety of Girl Scout cookies (Thin Mints, Samoas, Peanut Butter Patties, etc.) and a box of Girl Scout Cookies. The box is pink and green with the text 'girl scouts', 'cookies', and 'explorer'.
- Share contact information and hours of availability
 - Make sure families understand you are volunteers and have unavailable times that need to be respected
 - Direct caregivers to the GSNI-M website and where to find resources under Cookies+
 - Share cookie varieties and cost by pointing out items on the order card
 - Program dates: 1/30/26 – 3/16/26
 - No selling before 1/30
 - Share the troop goal
 - Encourage individual girl goals
 - Rewards are a good way to set goals
 - Explain Care to Share
 - Donations to the military
 - Cookies do not come out of troop inventory
 - Turn in all money for donations
 - Safety
 - Always need a caregiver present when selling cookies
 - Only use girls' first names in person and online
 - Wear uniform or other Girl Scout attire
 - Expect a receipt whenever cookies or money exchange hands
 - Encourage adults to let you know if you forgot a receipt
 - Your expectations for cookie payments: frequency, never owing more than $240, and other expectations you have
 - Have a sign-up sheet for booths
 - How many booths should families sign up for?
 - What are the expectations if they need to cancel for illness or another unforeseen event
 - Make sure caregivers understand the importance of showing at booths
 - List any other ways families can help to make the program a success!
 - Have the caregiver in each household sign the Girl Scout Product Responsibility Form
 - If a girl has multiple households, both caregivers should sign
