Nomination Process for Community Award

1. Complete the Nomination Form
2. Attach at least one letter of endorsement or support. Please use the following questions to help write the letter.
 - How has the service from this organization or individual benefited the Girl Scout program?
 - Give specific examples of the service that was performed.
 - Describe the impact this nominee has made on the group.
 - What was unique and exceptional about this service?
 - Was there a financial contribution as a result of this service? How much?

The Community Award is an inscribed plaque. If the nominee has previously received a plaque, additional awards will be in the form of a medallion inscribed with the current year to be added to the existing plaque.

Nominator's Checklist:

- Is the Nomination form complete and accurate?
- Is there at least one letter of endorsement or support (typed or legibly printed) attached?
- Is all of the contact information correct for both the nominee and the nominator?
